Kuehne + Nagel opens office in Myanmar

Singapore, April 11, 2013 – With the opening of an office in Myanmar at the beginning of April, Kuehne + Nagel further strengthens its presence in the Asia-Pacific region.

The Kuehne + Nagel office is located in Yangon (Rangoon), in the vicinity of the country's major sea- and airports. The company is offering comprehensive forwarding services by sea and air, warehousing, over-land transportation and customs brokerage.

Myanmar, an emerging market with increasing international trades with Europe, the USA as well as the rest of Asia, has a population of about 60 million. The country is rich in natural resources and is a key exporter of agricultural goods, textiles, wood products, construction materials, gems, metals, oil and natural gas. Major products imported include dairy products, machinery and equipment.

"With our innovative service portfolio, we are perfectly positioned to offer our customers in this dynamic market tailor-made, IT-based integrated logistics services," said Andy Weber, President of Kuehne + Nagel (Asia Pacific) Management Pte. Ltd.
