Kuehne + Nagel named official logistics contractor for Verona Fair

Milan / IT – March 16, 2016 – Kuehne + Nagel Italy is responsible for the professional handling of all exhibits to ensure smooth logistics processes at the exhibition center of Verona.

In the scope of a four years agreement, KN Expo & Events, the specialised division of Kuehne + Nagel, provides onsite logistics services in order to perfectly coordinate complex and time-critical processes prior to and during the events: domestic and international transport management with dedicated express vehicles for urgent shipments, door-to-venue and venue-to-door delivery services, brokerage of house-to-house transport insurance.

Moreover, Kuehne + Nagel is responsible for several value added services, such as loading / unloading, dock traffic management, on-site storage of full and empty containers as well as specialist lifting; further services include unpacking / repacking, labelling, collection, storage and return of empty cases.

“We are very excited about this new partnership which underlines our expertise in specialist trade fair and events logistic services. Based on our know-how and on our global network we are able to offer our customers solutions that best suit their requirements”, commented Ruggero Poli, Managing Director of Kuehne + Nagel Italy.

With more than 1,000 major trade fairs, exhibitions and events handled by Kuehne + Nagel each year, the company is one of the world's leading logistics service providers in this field.
