Cdiscount again places its trust in ID Logistics for the opening of its second logistics hub in Saint-Mard

Cavaillon, 23 September 2016 – ID Logistics is today announcing the inauguration of a new 40,000 m² logistics hub in Saint-Mard serving Cdiscount, a subsidiary of the Casino group.

This new platform, which is dedicated to handling white goods, rounds out Cdiscount's logistics network in the Paris region. It is the second logistics hub operated by ID Logistics and provides Cdiscount with a strategically placed unit that can receive and ship orders in France and reach Paris rapidly, guaranteeing its customers a same-day delivery service.

Adaptability, agility and responsiveness are the key factors that led Cdiscount to entrust ID Logistics with the management of its new platform. The Group has set up a customised organisation to handle effectively the strong growth and seasonal variations associated with the e-commerce company's products. New services have also been introduced – returns management, fulfilment (logistics service for suppliers on Cdiscount's market place) and same-day delivery. Processes have been rolled out to optimise storage space, including the use of reach trucks with special clamps for handling white goods.

The hub has close to 60 employees and handles 550,000 packages p.a.

Commenting on the hub's inauguration, Emmanuel Grenier, Chairman and CEO of Cdiscount, said: "We are very pleased to inaugurate this platform. It plays a key role because it allows us to deliver all customers in Paris / Ile de France, the same day over 4,000 references of household appliances and furniture. This is made possible by the high quality partnership with ID Logistics and professionalism that enables us to satisfy our customers."

Eric Hémar, Chairman and CEO of ID Logistics, added: "We are delighted to have inaugurated this second logistics hub for Cdiscount. It establishes ID Logistics as a logistics provider of choice for e-commerce groups in France. E-commerce requires flawless logistics and highly agile processes. By working with ID Logistics, Cdiscount will benefit from the expertise of a leading player in retail order fulfilment in France."
