Gulf Air awards Aero Cargo France for its re-launch of services in France

Paris, October 30, 2018 – For the re-launch of services in France, Gulf Air has chosen Aero Cargo in France to represent their Cargo activities. From Paris (CDG) to their hub in Bahrain (BAH) and an ever increasing network beyond, Aero Cargo will sell priority high-yield cargo (Express, Mail, Pharma & PER).

ECS Group, with it's subsidiary Globe Air Cargo, is already the GSA for Gulf Air in the U.K. This strong partnership and confidence between the two companies grows further with the addition of this contract. It's a great opportunity for Aero Cargo as Gulf Air is one of the oldest Middle Eastern Carriers and has a reputation for quality and service.

"We are really excited to be part of Gulf Air's expansion plans. We will do our best to ensure that it's successful and continue to support Gulf's strategy of being a premium carrier, focusing on high yields and high service levels." said Adrien THOMINET, ECS Group CEO.

"Aero Cargo has great connections in it's home market. We will use this to best advantage whilst representing this premium airline." said Jean CECCALDI, Managing Director of Aero Cargo France.

In this very competitive market, many routes are going to be marketed by Aero Cargo France, such as, but not limited to, Bahrain (BAH), Dubai (DXB), Jeddah (JED), Medina (MED), Riyadh (RUH), Cairo (CAI), Bangkok (BKK), Peshawar (PEW), Islamabad (ISB), Lahore (LHE), Karachi (KHI), Addis Ababa (ADD), Khartoum (KRT), Dhaka (DAC), Manila (MNL), Dammam (DMM).
