

Allport sells specialist services division to Bishopsgate

With effect from COB 4th June 2013 the Specialist Services division of Allport Cargo Services Limited has transferred to the ownership of Bishopsgate Specialist Installations

Commenting on the sale, Danny Clayton (pictured), joint group managing director of Allport Cargo Services. "Specialist Services has been operating as a division of Allport since 1977, over which time it has built an enviable client portfolio, a unique team of professionals and a formidable reputation for excellence in the field of specialist deliveries and installations."

"In joining Bishopsgate they are becoming part of the fastest growing specialist transportation providers in the UK, which means that they are in the best environment for future development and their customers will continue to enjoy the highest levels of performance and service."

"I am confident that this agreement is in the best interests of all parties and it leaves our business positioned as an international logistics provider focused on our core activities in freight forwarding and supply chain management, leveraging investments in eCommerce, international franchise retailing and developing new verticals to support our growth."
