

Beauty Bay contracts with XPO Logistics as growth continues

Northampton (UK) – 24 April 2017 – XPO Logistics is pleased to announce a new multi-year contract with Beauty Bay, a leading independent online retailer of skin care, hair care and cosmetic brands at BeautyBay.com.

XPO Logistics will use its extensive experience in managing and developing e-commerce supply chains to support Beauty Bay's double-digit growth with e-fulfilment logistics operations.

David Gabbie, Beauty Bay's managing director, said: "As the UK's largest independent online retailer of beauty products, we were looking for an experienced logistics provider to support our expansion. XPO's scale, track record and expertise in e-commerce fulfilment made them the optimal choice. We're looking forward to their support as we continue to grow."

Peter Fuller, XPO Logistics business unit director for the UK, said: "Beauty Bay is an exciting company that offers over 10,000 products from the very best UK and international brands. Our team will provide them with the robust logistics platform and scalable warehouse space they need to serve their growing customer base."
