Kale Logistics awarded the "Innovative SCM IT Provider of the Year 2015"

SCMPro- Supply Chain Management Professional has awarded Kale Logistics "Innovative SCM IT Provider of the Year 2015" at the Logistics Service Provider Summit & Awards 2015 for its pioneering initiatives in the space of Community Platforms for the Indian Logistics & Supply Chain Industry.

Mumbai, October 19, 2015: Kale Logistics today announced that it has been recognized as "Innovative SCM IT Provider of the Year 2015" at the Logistics Service Provider Summit & Awards 2015 organized by SCMPro.

SCMPro- Supply Chain Management Professional - part of the Institute of Supply Chain Management (ISCM) is a premium publication house and Institute of learning for the Logistics Industry. Kale Logistics was awarded "Innovative SCM IT Provider of the Year" for its first of its kind initiatives in the space of Community platforms for the supply chain entities.

Kale Logistics has designed & developed the new age Cargo Community Platform-UPLIFT in India, which has successfully processed 5 Million+ EDI transactions, thereby streamlining & reducing the paper in the complex cargo supply chain. Kale has the distinction of implementing first of its kind Airport Cargo Community platform (GMAX) in the world at the Mumbai International Airport Limited (MIAL) which has brought greater efficiency and visibility to all the Airport cargo community stakeholders. Kale has now ventured into creating India's first Container Digital Exchange (CODEX).

Speaking on the occasion, Mr. Vineet Malhotra, Director –Kale Logistics Solutions stated, "We are very happy to receive this recognition for our Innovative Initiatives in the Logistics Supply Chain Space, especially coming from SCM pro, which has premium readership. We have been awarded industry accolades for the last seven successive years for the pioneering solutions that facilitate automation in the Logistics Industry. This recognition reinforces our goal to unify the global logistics supply chain community on a single unified platform."

Kale's UPLIFT cargo community platform was the first cargo community system to get featured in Supply Chain Management book of KELLOGGS B-School. It was also recognized as "Top 10 Logistics Innovations in India" under a study taken up by KPMG.
