Kuehne + Nagel manages Supply Chain for FlexLink

Poznan-Gadki / Poland, October 16, 2012 – FlexLink, one of the world’s leading manufacturers of flexible, modular conveyors and industrial automation equipment, has selected Kuehne + Nagel as its exclusive logistics and transport service provider for shipments from Poland to international destinations.

Kuehne + Nagel will manage all international transports for FlexLink from Poland. These encompass multi-modal transportation services to more than 20 destinations worldwide by air and by sea as well as LTL and groupage overland services across Europe. The agreement also includes customs clearances and thus covers all logistics needs of FlexLink and its customers from door-to-door.

Working with a single international logistics provider will result in supply chain optimisation. “We choose Kuehne + Nagel because we serve customers in more than 60 countries through sales units in 23 countries and an extended global partner network. A smooth and reliable supply chain is of utmost importance to us. With Kuehne + Nagel we have found the ideal logistics partner who is globally recognized as a leading provider of best quality forwarding and logistics services. We are convinced that both Kuehne + Nagel and FlexLink will benefit from the cooperation,” commented Svante Anderholm, Chief Operations Officer of FlexLink.

“We will be acting as a fully integrated logistics partner for FlexLink, covering all transport operations from their global hub based in Poznan. FlexLink expects not only high-quality service, but also added value from Kuehne + Nagel’s experience and know-how,” said Tobias Jerschke, National Manager of Kuehne + Nagel in Poland.
