New weekly service between Zurich and Tampa

Swiss WorldCargo, the airfreight division of Swiss International Air Lines, is introducing a new weekly non-stop flight between Zurich and Tampa (Florida).

Swiss WorldCargo further expands its network of airfreight services today with the introduction of a new weekly non-stop flight between Zurich and Tampa International Airport, Florida. The service, which is operated in partnership with Edelweiss Air using Airbus A330 equipment, offers attractive new business possibilities for airfreight shipments between Switzerland and the USA and throughout the global Swiss WorldCargo network.

The addition of the new non-stop Zurich-Tampa flight further strengthens Swiss WorldCargo's position in the North American market, where SWISS's airfreight division already offers services to New York (JFK and Newark), Boston, Chicago, Miami, Los Angeles, San Francisco, Montreal and Toronto. This year's summer schedules will also see the resumption of the seasonal Edelweiss Air flights from Zurich to Vancouver and Calgary (Canada).
