

Centurion making connections in Texas

WE care...

Miami, Florida, March 31, 2015

Dear Customers

As a result of the consistent support from the market, we are pleased to announce that Centurion is increasing its capacity in Europe to the United States going from two flights per week to four.

Houston is our new destination and we are looking forward to fulfill your cargo requirements from Houston to Europe and beyond.

And ... for the first time, Texan customers will have access to direct freighter flights from Houston to Venezuela.
